

2022.12.28

Electrical entrance lighting update

The Falls Creek front and back entrances lighting had been experiencing intermittent problems and had had some power outages lately, just before Christmas this year.

The electrical system has been updated and improved by Yates Electric. It has been improved substantially to withstand the rigors of the elements, is now working as intended, and should continue to do so into the future, barring unanticipated severe disturbances.

KjG